Asia Cluster Of A Big Four Practice

· He Was President Of The Chartered Tax Institute Of Malaysia From 1991 To 2002

KUALA LUMPUR, 30 January (Bernama) -- Top ranking international audit, tax and corporate advisory practice UHY Malaysia announced in a statement today that the former Deloitte Managing Partner and Chairman Mr. Ahmad Mustapha Ghazali has joined UHY on 19 January 2012. "We are honored by the confidence that Mr. Ahmad Mustapha has put in UHY and proudly welcome his wealth of experience and credentials into the UHY family", said Alvin Tee, Senior Partner, UHY Malaysia.

Well respected in the professional Accounting community, Mr. Ahmad Mustapha was trained as a member of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England &

Wales, and actively involved in the professional community as the former President of the Chartered Tax Institute of Malaysia, Council Member of Malaysia

Institute of Certified Public Accountants, former Board Member of the Malaysian

Accounting Standards Board, just to name a few.

"With the impressive set of exposure and leadership capabilities that Mr. Ahmad

Mustapha brings to UHY, we are extremely positive that our medium term expansion plans are very much on track", added Alvin Tee. When asked on the specific responsibilities that Mr. Ahmad Mustapha is tasked to, Alvin Tee responded: "The government-linked corporation portfolio is something that we have agreed that Mr. Ahmad Mustapha is highly capable to focus on. On UHY's expansion program, we will be setting up our Melaka office by end of this quarter and have plans to expand presence in Kota Kinabalu. This is an addition to the three existing offices that we have in Malaysia."
